

This week's HDHS Recommended reads:

Key Stage 3: The Boy at the back of the class

When a new boy is introduced at school, no one is exactly sure where he has come from what is a "refugee kid", anyway, and how can Ahmet be helped to feel that he belongs? Though the narrator's voice is overly young at times, this is a lovely, warm-hearted celebration of courage and friendship leavened with mischief. The Guardian

Key Stage 4: The Boy who followed his father into Auschwitz

An extraordinary tale of endurance and filial love. It is a miraculous father and son story of surviving five and half years in Nazi prison camps with many twists and Jeremy Dronfield tells it well in an energetic and lively style. The Times

Key Stage 5: Interview With A Vampire

This is the story of Louis, as told in his own words, of his journey through mortal and immortal life. Louis recounts how he became a vampire at the hands of the radiant and sinister Lestat and how he became indoctrinated, unwillingly, into the vampire way of life.

Teachers, Parents and Carers:

The Tiger's Wife is a book about the secrets that people keep. It is a myth-infused tale of a young doctor in Yugoslavia trying to find the truth about her grandfather's death. It is a truly original and imaginative novel that conjures amazing images on every page.

Useful Information and links:

www.usborne.com Usborne children's books have made all their ebooks 99p. A great selection of books from early readers to young adult readers.

<https://royoftheroversofficial.com/news/2297>

For the next month at least, Scouted and Kick-Off, the first Roy of the Rovers' fiction and graphic novel is FREE for everyone to download and keep as eBooks. They have also dropped the prices on all Season 1 titles by 25%, so you can finish the season without breaking the bank!

Education Virtual Tours

HDHS is a reading school -
Reading for purpose and reading for pleasure

